THE CITIZEN.

An Independent Weekly Devoted to the

THE HOME, FARM, & SCHOOL. 50 CENTS A YEAR.

VOL. III.

A Family Paper

BEREA, MADISON COUNTY, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY APRIL 17, 1902.

Fifty cents a year.

NO. 43

IDEAS.

square is worth $100 a year to any

Onion sets are becoming more costly. The sprouts help to fill the measure. See?

excuse for you if the chickens and pigs devour your garden truck.

Turnip greens sold Saturday at 20 you want nice salad.

TAKE NOTICE.

The mid-week services of the Church of Berea are held Thursday night at 7.30 in Room 4, Lincoln Hall.

Rev. W. A. Eisenhart, of the Northern Presbyterian Church, Richmond, el exercises at night.

FROM THE WIDE WORLD.

campaign.

The c'ose of the war in South Africa seems to be at hand.

The new Government of Cuba is to be inaugurated on May 20. Presidentelect Palma will be inducted into of-troops will begin. French Parliament to cut a ship canal across Southwestern France from Read Luke 14: 12-14.

IN OUR OWN COUNTRY.

Congress has voted a pension to Mrs. McKinley of $5,000 a year.

Rev. T. De Witt Talmage died at 8 o'clock Saturday night at his home for use, to do him honor.) So far as in Washington, D. C.

come the social equal of the dogs.

mayor of the city.

A steel combine with a capital of $200,000,000 with Henry C. Frick. is doing for the advancement of the chain, or 25 threads wool yarn, coarse of Homestead fame, at the head was formed this week.

The sunken lands in S. E. Missouri and N. E. Arkansas, caused by the earthquake of 1811, are supposed to be underlaid with oil.

In the month of March there were 94,418 pieces of misdirected mail left in the Cincinnati Post-office and the letter boxes of the city.

There are $2,253,969,259 in circulatisn among 78,663,000 population in the United States, or $2865 for each man, woman and child.

There is a deadly famine in the drouth stricken regions of Southern Texas. Many persons have starved to death. Stock has nearly all per ished.

It is estimated that there are in the United States 56,896 tramps, a gain in 30 years of 235.4 per cent-three and four-fifths times that of the population. These men cost the country at least $11,000 a year, and produce

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY.

Dr. B. D. Cox was assassinated on the streets of Jackson, Breathitt county, between 8 and 9 o'clock Monday night. No clue found, and no motive

The post-office at Irvine, Estill open, and a large quantity of stamps and money were stolen.

Judge Settle, of Bowling Green, was called from church last Sunday to hear the verdict convicting J. L. Rone of manslaughter for killing C. V. Savery. Rone gets 21 years in

New revenue laws for the State: Increase of tax for selling playing cards to $10 a year; increase of tax for sellselling bowie knives to $100; increase of tax for selling bowie knives to $100; increase of tax for the street north.

for tax to pawnbrokers to $500; license to retail cigarettes, $10; license on oil depots, $10; license on oil wagon, $5.

be the street wide, running back to the street north.

For prices and terms apply to J. L. Gay, Berea, or B. F. Gay, Lowell, Ky. 5. $.02

ARE WE'A CHRISTIAN NATION?

cents a peck, and you can raise them be answered lightly, so we will pre- country is generally true, but in the at home for a nickel a bushel. Sow sent a few facts for consideration, and case of the Berea Glee Club an exspring turnips and white mustard if leave our readers to decide for them ception appears, if the hearty ap-will preach at the Tabernacle Sunday antiquity consecrated their ships to the Club, was especially enjoyed by correct glasses to use. If you don't morning, and will conduct the chapparticular deities, and the naming of everyone. The applause accorded need glasses I will tell you so. France is in the throes of a political for the purpose. Now red wine is Adams, by a chorus of some thirty transit" inspection of our great coun- housekeeper. The instrumental part try, $454,786 This money was spent of the performance was much apprefice, and the withdrawal of American in lavish decoration and sumptuous ciated. Last, but greatest: A glee There is a measure before the who have never known how to aptrained members, and all of them of preciate fullness because of fasting. - high type of Christian character, un> of any of our grand educational insti- manager Professor A. S. Hill. tutions. (It is said that a university appended three initial letters, L. L. D., certs by the Berea College Glee Club to his name, now altogether too long before vacation.

the public has learned Mammon and The Massachusetts Legislature not Christ was host, and right royally has licensed cats, so the cats have be did he acquit himself. If any move tian Church, the foundation and bul- blue, as follows: wark of his country, and of our own, For one cut 400 threads cotton never be accused of reticence, have on hand wheel: been and are profoundly silent about it. Are we Christian or commercial?

PUBLIC NOTICE.

On April 10, 1902, at a regular meeting of the board of trustees of the town of Berca, Ky., the following ordinance was offered, and passed its first reading. If it passes at the next regular meeting of the board it will at once become law.

ORDINANCE.

Ky., do ordain as follows: That any person riding a bicycle MISS JOSEPHINE A. ROBINSON, on any of the sidewalks of Berea, Ky., shall be fined not less than one dollar, and not more than ten dollars, for each offence. This takes effect at terred in the Berea cemetery, and all Court Clerk in Madison county, subothers interested in the welfare of our ject to the action of the Democratic town, are earnestly asked to meet at party. the Cemetery on Saturday, April 26, to assist in cleaning up the ground, filling up graves, planting shrubbery, first-class brick, very hard. Will sell assist in cleaning up the ground, filland making the "City of the Dead" all or part to suit purchaser. The county, was broken into last Wednesday night. The iron safe was blown open, and a large quantity of stamps of the county of stamps of the county, was broken into last Wednesday near and presentable for Decoration White's Station. Address or call on Geo. D. White, Richmond, Ky., or see make your arrangements so you can man on the farm. come and help.

E. L. Robinson, Town Clerk. April 12, 1902.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

A Fine Property FOR SALE.

A Storehouse 20 ft. by 50 ft. with two rooms 20 ft by 25 ft. above, with 3-room cottage adjoining, on a lot writes Editor J. J. Eager, "which causfronting on Chestnut street and next ed a most obstinate cough and finally to Bicknell & Early store lot. The resulted in profuse hemorrhages, but

BEREA COLLEGE GLEE CLUB.

"In the morning sow thy seed; in The rumor that Scions of Royalty | Certainly Berea College can conthe evening withhold not thy hand." have and will be invited to attend the gratulate herself on her Glee Club, "It's cheaper to buy vegetables opening of the new Chamber of and most certainly Prot. Wm. Lodthan to raise 'em." That's a zephyr. Commerce in New York, in the near wick deserves much commendation A well managed garden 50 feet future, revives the memory of func- for the thorough and careful work he tions all over the United States on the has done in training the Club to the occasion of the recent visit of Prince standard shown at the concert Tues-Henry, of Germany, and the christen- day night in the Tabernacle. We do ing of the German Emperor's yacht not hesitate to say that such a per-Meleor by Miss Alice Roosevelt, formance as we were favored with daughter of President Roosevelt, of Tuesday night given by a Glee Club Now wire is so cheap there is no the United States, and also raises in from some city at a distance would the mind of the writer the question: call forth large patronage and almost "ARE WE A CHRISTIAN NATION?" extravagant praise. The proverb that The question is too important to a prophet has no honor in his own plause and after-expressions of the Spectacles Fact 1. To christen means to make audience on Tuesday night can be a Christian. The baptism of an in- taken as a criterion. The concert fant or an adult among churches be- was good. It would be difficult to lieving in baptismal regeneration determine which number of the ex came to be known as a "christening," cellent program presented secured need or making a Christian of and giving a the most favor, but "One Sweetly name to the candidate by baptism. | Solemn Thought," by Johnson, renthe vessel was accompanied by a this song was subdued, but genuine; sacrifice and libation of blood, and and its effect on the audience was often that of human beings was used truly good. "Comrades in Arms," used as a concession to the religion of male voices, stirred all hearts; and peace.—Read 2 Cornthians 6: 16, 17. "Dried Apple Pie" will most likely Fact 3. The formal entertainment have some effect on the sale of dried Main St. Berea, Ky of the German Prince cost the twenty apples, or at least call for careful incities where he halted in his "rapid spection of the fruit by the prudent feasting and expended upon persons club and chorus of some forty wellder the direction of a thoroughly Arcachon on the Atlantic to Narbon- Fact 4. During the whole itinerary competent Christian gentleman, is ne on the Mediterranean. It will be of the Royal Guest he was not intro- not often met with in even Christian 280 miles long and cost $263,000,000. duced to any of our religious enter- America, but that is what Berea Colprises in operation for the salvation lege Glee Club is with its director of the world, neither was he the guest Rev. Wm. Lodwick and its business

We hope for at least two more con-

PRIZES FOR HOME-DYED

To revive the art of HOME DYEING MAIN STREET, Opposite Blanton Coal Yard. was made by the officiaries of any one wool and cotton, Berea College is of-Members of organized labor in of the great ecclesiastical bodies of fering a list of prizes for home-dyed Hartford, Conn., last week elected Ig- our Christian Nation to show Prince cotton chain and wool yarn in yellow, natius A. Sullivan, a clothing clerk, Henry, of Germany, what the Chris- green, red, black, brown and indigo world, the newspapers, which can enough for coverlid weaving and spun

				18	T F	RIZ	E. 2N	D' PRIZE
Indigo	Blue,	dar	k,			$2	00	$1 00
"		med		m,		2	00	1 00
"	"	ligh	t,			2	00	1 00
Yellow						/1	00	50
Light (Freen					1	00	50
Brown				4.		1	00	50

The dyes must be home made and not commercial dyes and the receipt used in dyeing must be given in writing with each color.

The College reserves the right to give second-class prizes of any color where no first-class dyeing is offered.

Prizes will be awarded at the Home-The Trustees of the Town of Berea, spun Fair on Commencement Day, June 4, 1902.

Berea, Ky.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

We are authorized to announce Geo. D. White, of Richmond, as candidate for Circuit Clerk of Madison county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce Roy Every person who has friends in- C. White as candidate for Circuit

All Eyes on Texas.

Great is Texas. Her vast cotton crops and marvelous oil discoveries amaze the world. Now follows the startling statement of the wonderful work at Cisco, Tex. of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. "My wife contracted a severe lung trouble,"

Unless you need them; and if you use them be sure they fit your

I will give thorough examination with the above instrument. FREE OF Fact 2. The raval nations of pagan dered by the twelve male voices of CHARGE, which always indicates the

T. A. Robinson.

Optician and Jeweler

ESTABLISHED 1863.

MADISON MONUMENTAL WORKS

Head stones, urns, monuments and marble and granite work of all kinds. Prices governed by quality of ma-terial. Prices reasonable. Only first class work done. All work guaranteed.

J. T. Hamilton, Prop., RICHMOND, Ky.

MUNN & CO. 361Broadway New YOTA

FOR HANDMADE FANCY WOODWORK

in hats, sunbonnets, fancy baskets of all descriptions, napkin rings, in all colors

Send your orders to

MISSES M. AND L. CARTER, BEREA, KENTUCKY.

Prices very reasonable, and all work well-made

This will save your Life Dr. King's New Discovery

Consumption, Coughs and Colds. No Cure. NO Pay. Your Drug

ABSOLUTELY CURES Grip, Influenza, Asthma, Bronchitis Whooping Cough, Pneumonia. or any Affection of the Throat and Lungs. TRIAL BOTTLES FREE.
Regular Sizo 50 cents and $1.00

Old Soldier's Experience

M. M. Austin, a civil war veteran, of Winchester, Ind., writes: "My wife was sick a long time in spite of good doctor's treatment, but was wholly cured by Dr. King's New Life Pills, which worked wonders for her health." They always do. Try them. Only 25c at all drugstores.

Students, Attention!

Want to save money?

Well, here is the way to do it. Trade with us, and keep the rebate checks we issue with every cash purchase, and we'll

One dollar's worth of any kind of merchandise free for the return of twenty dollars in checks. Checks transferable and no limit in time for collection.

We not only save you five per cent, extra, but our assortment of CLOTHING, SHOES, HATS and FURNISHINGS equals any in Central Kentucky, at prices not excelled in any market.

Covington & Banks

RICHMOND, KENTUCKY

OUR SPRING STOCK

of Fine Saddles, Carriage and Buggy Harness is full and complete. Our Prices are the lowest consistent with good material and workmanship. For the farm work our Collars, Hames, Backbands, Chains, etc., are lower in price than usual. Come and see me.

T. J. MOBERLY .

RICHMOND, KY. Successor to J. T. McClintock, Main St., Opposite Court House.

DR. M. E. JONES, RICE & ARNOLD RICHMOND, KY. Dentist &

Office .- Rear Mrs. Fish's Millinery

Office Days .- Thursday, Friday, and Saturday of each week. Special Notice to Our Readers.

Special Notice to Our Readers.

This paper is on file at the office of The Chicago later Ocean, 106-108-110 East Monroe Street, Chicago, where our readers will be courteously greeted who may care to call upon The Inter Ocean for a tour of inspection and sight-seeing through its magnificent building, in which can be found every mechanical and scientific improvement of the age in connection with the needs of a great newspaper. It is a rare treat to any one interested in the subject and should be taken advantage of.

Shoes, Hats & Gents' Furnish st ings. st

James Racer & Bro. are our agents in Berea. Same prices in Berea as Richmond.

MEAT MARKET.

I have re-opened the Meat Market on Main Street. Fresh Meats, Dressed Poultry, and Vegetables

M. B. RAMSEY, Berea, Ky.

Fair Dealing Pays:

And that is one reason our business is increasing. We sell you in a way to bring us your Future Trade, and that of your friends.

spring Styles for 1902:

New Rockers, Ladies' Desks, Couches, Dining and Bedroom Furniture, and many attractive articles to make the home comfortable. Picture Framing, Carpets, Matting, Rugs.

UNDERTAKING A SPECIALTY.

Day Phone, 73. Night Phone, 66. JO. S. JOPLIN, Richmond, Ky.

Hats

Hats For the boy, for the father; for the girl, for the mother; Spring Hats, Summer Hats, Seasonable Hats, in straw, crash and other materials. Price, 5 CENTS AND UP at

Bicknell & Early's

Douglas & Crutcher

have a fine line of Spring and Summer Shoes. They enjoy showing you their goods.

SEE THEIR LATEST IN OXFORDS ...

ROADS OF AMERICA.

Progress In the Building of High-wave In the Country. The influence of the mechanical steed on our civilization is best exemplified in the growth and improvement of the country highways, which, in a country that stretches between two oceans and includes within its boundary nearly all the climates and physical characteristics of a mighty continent, have been slowly evolved from the almost indistinguishable trail of the pioneer settlers into roads of high engineering skill and achievement, says Gunton's Magazine, The American country roads have lagged in the development of the nation's material growth and expansion until within the past few years. With the exception of the few old postroads, established in colonial days, when the stagecoach was the only vehicle for comfortable travel, there were not more than two or three country highways of passable physical condition, summer and winter, a score of years ago in the United

Military roads were the earliest in existence in all countries, and the protective necessity of having different parts of the empire joined together by highways over which an army could be quickly moved inspired most of the great engineering feats in roadbuilding of the past. This factor had little or no influence in American industrial life. Our boundaries did not abut those of powerful nations with whom we might at any time wage war; consequently no thought of establishing lines of fortifications, connected by military highways, ever entered the heads of our most warlike legislators or presidents. Military roads were not features of our national development, and, though potent factors in the growth of many European states, they were almost nil in American history.

The modern roadbuilding movement is attributed to the bicycle and automobile, but it must be said that it was rather the conditions of the times, which were ripe for the change, that made the popularity of these mechanical steeds. Railroad construction had almost reached its limit, important trunk lines were already paralleling each other so that they cut disastrously into each other's profits, and the most important parts of the country were joined together by the ribbons of steel. Railroad stocks were declining in value, profits were becoming reduced, and capital was chary of investing in new enterprises of this character.

What the country needed was more feeders-country roads leading from farms, mines and producing lands. For months in the year the great agricultural sections were shut off from the railroads by almost impassable country roads. Mills and manufacturing plants located on streams or water that furnish excellent motive power could not market their products in winter. The logging camps and the mining companies were likewise helpless in winter. Thus for a good portion of the year the country commerce was paralyzed and the producing centers were cut off from the world.

SENATOR EARLE'S SCHEME. How He Would Secure Good Roads In This Country.

The unique figure in the "good roads world" is State Senator Earle of Detroit. He was at one time connected with the department of good roads inquiries at Washington as an expert, which office he was obliged to relinquish upon his election to the senate. He has a scheme which if put into practice would soon bring the millennial dawn of good roads, says the Philadelphia North American. In explaining his scheme he said:

"First, I would have the government make good road maps of each county in the United States, showing all the public highways. I would have bad roads printed in red, fairly good ones in blue and the improved roads in black. These would be published in pocket form and sold for 5 cents each at all postoffices. This would in effect compel every farmer to see to it that his road was improved, for he would soon see the advantage of having his farm located on one of the improved roads.

"Second, I would levy a tax of 50 cents a year on every vehicle in the land. This alone would yield an annual revenue of several millions. It would furnish all the funds necessary for the purpose. The tax would be a trifle and would be cheerfully paid by most people so long as it was to be devoted to the betterment of highways."

The Value of Good Roads.

Good roads, like good streets, make habitation along them most desirable. They economize time and force in transportation of products, reduce wear and tear on horses, harness and vehicles and enhance the market value of real estate. They raise the value of farm lands and farm products and tend to beautify the country through which they pass. They facilitate rural mail delivery and are a potent aid to education, religion and sociability. Charles Sumner once said, "The road and the schoolmaster are the two most important agents in advancing civilization."

Glass Street In Paris. There has just been opened to the public of Paris a new street paved with blocks made by a new glass process. Contrary to the expectation of many, it affords an excellent footbold and promises to be without dust and not absorb waste. By the process the inventor is enabled to use all kinds of glass debris.

Canadian Roads.

In the cities and towns throughout Canada asphalt and vitrified brick have been adopted as the standard pavements, macadam on the leading county highways and gravel for the

RELIGIOUS THOUGHT.

of All Denominations.

The voice of God is clear and strong. though still and quiet .- Rev. C. Brent, Episcopalian, Boston.

Sign of an Ignoble Mind.

Slander, whether of friend or foe, is the sign of an ignoble mind.-Rev. J. L. Quinn, Catholic, Pittsburg.

Salvation a Gift. Salvation is a gift. It is not merited

Dr. William J. Holtzclaw, Baptist, At-Deeper Social Sympathy. The crying need of the hour is a deeper social sympathy.-Rev. Henry

Frank, Church of the Higher Thought, New York.

The Time T o Short The time is too short for bickerings, too short for harsh words, too short for dishonesty, too short for anything but God and good and love and righteousness .- Rev. Dr. F. W. Gunsaulus, Chi-

The Question of the Centuries. The question which he asked nineteen centuries ago is still sounding in our ears, "Why call ye me Lord and do not the things which I say?"-Rev. Charles E. Jefferson, Presbyterian,

New York. Pure Joy of Christianity.

Christianity brings the pure joy of worthy occupation. Worthy work gives one of life's greatest incomes of happiness. Leisure tires and pleasure grows stale and insipid .- Rev. Dr. Sims, Methodist, Syracuse, N. Y.

Mission of the Church.

The Christian church in its inner life and nature is the same as that of Jesus. Its mission in the world is the same as his, to save the world through wisdom and power of love.-Rev. A. B. Church, Universalist, Akron, O.

Susceptible to Influence.

We are all susceptible to external influences, to impressions made upon our minds and hearts by forces working upon them from without-what in scientific language we call our environment.-Rev. Dr. Dewey, Reformed.

Satisfies Every Need.

Every point in the ever widening circle of human wants and needs and inspirations is a place where a more perfect apprehension of the inexhaustible and satisfying sufficiency of God becomes possible.-Rev. Charles Watson, Presbyterian, St. Louis.

The Joy of Giving.

Love is always manifested and measured by gifts. Justice requites, reason recompenses, conscience commands, and love gives. God "so" loved that he gave and man may "so" love that giving becomes his greatest joy. - Rev.

Bruce Brown, Christian, Denver, Religion a Thing of Activity.

Worship is the fragrance of religion. but religion itself is the human will swung into line, with the divine will and our struggling hands and feet battling forward under the marching orders of our Saviour.—Rev. Dr. W. J. McKittrick, Presbyterian, St. Louis.

The Gospel In Political Life. The gospel of Christ is the true elevator. Let the hearts and lives of men be molded by it and you will have a constituency from which you may

Dr. William B. Wood, Methodist, Philadelphia. The Influence of Literature. If you want your children to be sailors, hang pictures of ships on the walls; if farmers, get them interested in agricultural papers; if electricians. buy them the life of Edison; if Christians, put healthful, practical Christian literature before them.-Rev. Dr. C. M. Cobern, Methodist, Chicago.

Abuse of Freedom of Press. Freedom of the press is a splendid thing, but not when it sows broadcast the dragon's teeth of anarchy and discord, not when it seeks to instill hatred into ignorant and undiscriminating minds, not when it attempts to array the poor against the rich or the workman against his employer .- Rev. St. Clair Hester, Episcopal, Brooklyn.

The Heroism of Suffering. The heroism of battle is not to be mentioned the same day with the heroism of suffering. The supreme hero of history was Jesus Christ, who was greatest not in what he could achieve, but in what he could bear, and who conquers the world not by what he is able to do, but by what he is able to suffer .- Rev. Dr. Parkhurst, Presbyterian, New York. Happy Christians.

Oh, that we all may have that consecration in our lives, that obedience to the Lord, love for the Lord and for his service and work, that we may be joyful, glad servants and people might say: "What a happy Christian! What a happy church that is! That is the kind of people I want to associate with!"-Rev. J. Wesley Sullivan, Baptist, Philadelphia.

Knowledge of the Creator. The more wondrous, fair and lovely this world and its life grows to look to us the more they desire to know of him who is its heart and life. The science which has seemed to obliterate men from God is really giving them a deeper thirst for him. As we get closer to the facts, as we master more of the truth, we are more eager to see and know God.-Rev. Dr. John Coleman Adams, Universalist, Hartford, Conn.

The First Drink.

The career of every inebriate begins with but one drink. Will you incur the responsibility of being the one to proffer that drink? The dreadful end of every inebriate is surely hastened by one drink' more. Will you become the means of precipitating the irremediable catastrophe? Remember that in every glass there is possible ruin for the one to whom you give it.-Dr. W. Taliaferro Thompson, Congregationalist, Washington.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

LESSON III, SECOND QUARTER, INTER-NATIONAL SERIES, APRIL 20.

Text of the Lesson, Acts x, 34-48. Memory Verses, 42-44-Golden Text, Acts x, 34-Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

[Copyright, 1902, by American Press Association.] 34, 35. Of a truth I perceive that God is nor given as a reward for works.-Rev. As in Gen. i and ii and Rev. xxi and xxii so throughout this whole Bible the story is that of God working out His eternal purpose (Eph. iii, 11) notwithstanding the opposition of the devil and of sinful men controlled by the devil. The special story of the Acts is that of the beginning of the gathering out from the gentiles a people for His name (xv, 14), and this work began in the home of Cornelius under Peter, as recorded in our lesson. Although the Lord had commanded before His ascension that the gospel be preached to every creature and unto the uttermost part of the earth (Mark xvi, 15; Acts i, 8), the preaching had up to this time been to the Jews only (xi, 19), and Peter had to receive a special vision to teach him that God was no respecter of persons.

36-38. Preaching peace by Jesus Christ. These glad tidings were for Israel first (Luke xxiv, 47; Acts i, 8), but in order that Israel might reach out to the gentiles, which they were slow to do. God made the sinless one to be sin for us that we might in Him be made righteous before God (II Cor. v. 21), and apart from Him there is no righteousness, no salvation, however devout or prayerful a man may be. Even Nicodemus had to be born from above in order to enter the kingdom of God, and Peter had to bring to Cornelius the message by which he and his house might be saved (xi, 14), for there is no salvation apart from the reception of Christ and faith in His atoning blood (Acts iv, 12; Lev. xvii, 11).

A witness does not need to get up his little speech or make up anything He simply tells truthfully what he knows, and the redeemed of the Lord are continually on the witness stand proclaiming something concerning Je sus Christ. If all the redeemed were true witnesses, what a glorious testimony would be ever going forth concerning Him who is altogether lovely 40-42. He commanded us to preach unt the people and to testify that it is He which was ordained of God to be the Judge of quick and dead.

In all their preaching these witnesse fail not to declare that although the Jews killed Jesus God raised Him from the dead and showed Him openly to chosen witnesses, and now Peter declares, as Paul afterward does (xvii, 31), that He is the God appointed Judge of all mankind.

43. To Him give all the prophets wit-

On the way to Emmaus as He talked with those two that resurrection day He expounded unto them in all the Scriptures the thirgs concerning Himself and taught that all things concerning Him in the law, the prophets and choose officers who will be a credit and the psalms must be fulfilled (Luke ot a disgrace to the community.—Rev. Xxiv, 27, 44). The Spirit of Christ was in the prophets, and the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy (I Pet. 1, 10, 11; Rev. xix, 10), and the uniform testimony of all in whom the Spirit speaks is that the first great essential is the forgiveness of sins, and this can be had only in Christ by His precious

44. While Peter yet spake these words the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word.

The message was not Peter's mes sage, but the Lord's own message through Peter, and Cornelius so recognized it, for he had said to Peter. "We are all here present before God to hear all things that are commanded thee of God" (verse 33). As the word was spoken the Spirit wrought, their opened hearts received Him of whom Peter in the power of the Spirit spake, and the Spirit Himself came in power upon them at the same time.

45, 46. They heard them speak with tongues and magnify God.

It was as at Pentecost (chapter ii, 4), except that there was no waiting, for the Spirit having come as our Lord promised there is no longer any need to wait, but where the heart is open and the Lord truly received there may be also the filling of the Spirit. While there is no need to wait any definite time to be filled with the Spirit, there may be a need to wait because of the unreadiness of the believer to receive. There came with Peter six Jewish brethren from Joppa (Acts xi, 12), who, although believers, were astonished when they saw the Holy Spirit given to these gentiles. It is to this day difficult for some believers to think that any people can be blessed outside of their so called churches, but they need to learn that God is no more a respecter of denominations than of persons. 47, 48. He commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord.

Here is something helpful for those who make baptism with water essential to the new birth, for behold in this company in Cornelius' house some saved and Spirit filled people who have not yet been baptized with water and are thus baptized after they have been saved and have received the gift of the Holy Ghost. On the other hand, we have in Acts xix, 1-6, some disciples who, having been baptized, had not heard anything about the Holy Spirit, so they were baptized again and at the hands of Paul received the gift of the Holy Ghost and spake with tongues and prophesied. I mention this to show that we must make essential to salvation only that which God makes essential-viz, receiving Christ (John i, 12; I John v, 11, 12).

THE FARM.

ONE COW DAIRY.

that is true in every part and even within the whole truth.

Kirby's place, on Center St., Berea. Mr. Kirby very kindly furnished us a cow for her keep and raising the calf. We kept a close account of expense of feed, and as close as we could of income on the cow from June 17 to We can never be an educated people July 22 inclusive, 36 days, and here are the figures.

Feed purchased June 17 July 22,

Butter made same period, 38 lbs;

CASH RECEIPTS. For 234 lbs. Butter (c) 20c 23 quarts Milk @ 5e

On HAND, July 22. 8 lbs. Extra fine Butter.

Feed on hand from $1040 cutlay: 2 bushels corn; 4 bushels outs; 60 lbs. chop, corn and oats; 40 lbs. bran.

One horse and a large flock of chickens had been fed from the feed during the 36 days.

The calf had been well cared for (ask Mr. John Kirby), and the cow was in fine condition. In addition to her regular feed the cow was turned

Of course the cow was a good one perhaps one eighth Jersey, the balance good cow. On several days we weighed the butter from a day's yield of milk, that is when we kept none no access to books either at school or wide, and 21 yards (90 inches) long. out for house use, and it was never at home. less than 20 ounces for the day, besides feeding the calf. We attribute our by most excellent teachers; but some success among other things to regu- of them are taught by young men lids or homespun to Berea College lar feeding, regular milking, good and women whose education was fin-should find out what the College least to churning cream, not milk, country academy, and still more by spin. For information apply in perwhen it was ripe and sweet. The teachers who have never had any churning was done every morning and schooling except that furnished at in a half-gallon fruit jar, churning these same public schools. Most of Miss Josephine A. Robinson, twice. Besides all of the above our these young men and women do not Berea College, - - - Berea, Ky table was well supplied at all times wish to teach any longer than may with cream and butter we do not be necessary to make enough money use milk when cream is at hand, as to enable them to get a start in some guests whom we were privileged to other business. The average school entertain, occasionally remarked.

This screed is not written with an three years of one hundred days which caused me great pain and anintention to boast, only just to show each. what you can do by patient attention and generous care of one of your in cheap, uncomfortable houses, with cided to use Chamberlain's Pain most valuable friends—the cow. A no adequate equipment, and with lit- Balm, which I had seen advertised in farmer may fare better than a king if the pretense to beauty or sanitation. the South Jerseyman. After two aphe will.-John Dodwell.

The latest plague to afflict New He has made his appearance on street cars and on ferryboats and usually advocates some remedy which will cure almost any disease. Passengers in an uptown elevated train were rather startled by hearing a man cry in a loud voice that "mothers-in-law are not cranky; they are sick and in need"-then he cried out the merits of a well known remedy and had disappeared into the next car before the passengers gained their breath and composure.

"A neighbor ran in with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colie, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy when my son was suffering with severe cramps and was given up as beyond hope by my regular physician, who stands high in his profession. After administering three doses of it, my son regained consciousness and recovered entirely within twenty-four hours," says Mrs. Mary Haller, of Mt. Crawford, Va. This Remedy is for sale by S. E.

Better Than Pills.

The question has been asked, "In what way are Chamberlain's Stomach & Liver Tablets superior to pills? Our answer is: They are easier and more pleasant to take, more mild and gentle in effect and more reliable as Then they cleanse and invigorate the stomach and leave the bowels in a natural condition, while pills are more harsh in effect and their use is often followed by constipation. For sale by S. E. WELCH, JR.

THE SCHOOL.

OUR RURAL SCHOOLS.

Below you will find a statement Their Deplorable Condition and How This May be Remedied.

Last summer we lived at Mr. John school age in the Southern States made worthy. Southern Education more than six million live in sparsely Notes. settled districts or in towns of less than 2,000 inhabitants. Hence the rural schools are of first importance and should receive first consideration. until we have good rural schools and the country children attend them.

At present the average length of the annual term of these schools is something less than one hundred Cottage Cheese made same period, 64 days. The average number of days lbs.: CREAM for Jee Cream, 4 quarts. of schooling for each child of school age is less than forty. The averages $4 65 for the entire country are fully fifty 1 15 per cent more than these, and for 53 lbs. Cottage Cheese @ 10c 5 30 those of the most favored sections more than a hundred per cent better. In one Southern State the average length of term of the schools is less than seventy days; the average attendance of children of school age is less than twenty-five days. Only three hundred and fifty days of schooling to prepare the children of a people for life and citizenship in a great democratic republic!

Comparatively few of these rural should be taught what to read and dyes, $3 a pair. encouraged to cultivate the habit of White linsey and white blankets reading good books. But this can are not in demand only on orders. not be done when the children have Coverlids must be 2 yards (72 inches)

Some of these schools are taught home-made dyes.

The South is no longer poor as it was plications of this Remedy I was much in the decades immediately succeed- better, and after using one bottle, was ing the ravages of war. Building completely cured. SALLIE HARRIS, York city is the "oral advertiser." material is abundant in every State, Salem, N. J. Forsale by S. E. Welch, and our men have strong arms to fell JR.

trees, prepare lumber and make brick. We should begin at once to build decent and comfortable school houses in every school district, and equip them with the needful furniture and apparatus. These school houses are the homes of our children all the days they attend school, and Of the seven million children of we should see to it that they are

KEEP POLITICS OUT OF THE SCHOOLS.

No good citizen who takes the time to think what he is about, and who has a monitor in his own conscience, could possibly be guilty of using the public schools of a state or city to further his own selfish, personal or political interests, says the Knoxville Journal and Tribune. As well think of profaning the holy sanctuary by preaching politics from the sacred pulpit as to think of converting the public schools of a community into a political machine for the advancement of the selfish and personal interests of individuats.

REPAIR THAT LOOM.

Berea College has secured a market for homespun and home-woven goods, such as bed coverlids, linen, dress linsey, jeans, blankets, etc., at following prices:-

schools have any libraries or any Coverlids, $4 to $6; Linen, 40 to 50 books except a few text books used cents a yard; Dress Linsey, 50 cents by the children. Having been giv- a yard; Jeans, 60 cents a yard; out daily on the commons to graze. en the power to read, the children Blankets, natural brown wool or bark

All dyes used must be old fashioned care, kind usage and last but not ished in the first or second year of a wants before beginning to weave or son or by letter to

Any woman who wants to sell cover-

Good for Rheumatism.

Last fall I was taken with a very life of these teachers is not more than severe attack of muscular rheumatism noyance. After trying several pre-Most of these schools are taught scriptions and rheumatic cures, I de-

RIPANS

I had nervous indigestion and a general derangement of the entire system. It had been a continual torture for 12 years. My blood became very poor and at times my toe and finger nails would be diseased. After eating I would sit in a chair and put my feet on something to keep them from swelling, and at times would take off my shoes for the misery I had. Whenever I experience anything to remind me of past aches I cannot be too elated to tell what Ripans Tabules had done for me. I still take one now and then, because I know how bad I have been. They were just what I needed.

AT DRUGGISTS.

The five cent packet is enough for an ordinary occasion. The family bottle, sixty cents, contains a supply for a year.

BEREA COLLEGE Founded

.Places the Best Education in Reach of All...

Over 30 Teachers, 800 Students (from 20 States). Largest College Library in Kentucky. NO SALOONS.

Trade Schools-Carpentry, Printing, Housework, Nursing, two years. Model Schools-General Education, and fitting for advanced courses. For those sufficiently advanced to get a teacher's certificate:

Applied Science-Two years course, with Agriculture for young men, and Domestic Science for young ladies. Normal Course-Two years, with practice teaching. Academy Course-Four years, fitting for College, for business, and College Course-Literary, Philosophical, Classical. [for life Music-Reed Organ, Choral (free), Vocal, Piano, Theory. We are here to help all who will help themselves toward a Christian edueation. Our instruction is a free gift. Students pay a small incidental fee they can always be depended upon. to meet expenses of the school apart from instruction, and must also pay

Then they cleaned and invigorate the for board in advance. Expenses for term (12 weeks) may be brought within $24.00, about $14 to be paid in advance.

The school is endorsed by Baptists, Congregationalist, Disciples, Methodsta, Presbyterians, and good people of all denominations.

WILL C. GAMBLE, - Berea, Madison Co., Ky.

deputs, $10; license on oil vugan, $

For information and friendly advice address the Secretary,

OUR CLUB LIST.

The Citizen, Cincinnati Weekly Gazette, Twelve Splendid Pictures.

The Cincinnati Weekly Gazette, for one year, 24 pages, the Oldest Newspaper in the West, The Citizen, one year. the Best Newspaper in Eastern Kentucky, and twelve splendid pictures one each month with your papers for only 80 cents.

Commencing December, 1901, every subscriber will receive FREE, once each month with his paper, a beautiful and valuable picture for twelve

This series is a choice selection of twelve of the best pictures taken from the famous Tonnesen Life Studies and from Austen's multiplatinum reproductions in black and white.

The two papers one year and twelve pictures for 80 CENTS.

The Citizen and Courier-Journal, 2 times a week, 104 times a year.

The Twice- WEEK COURIER-JOUR-NAL is the best paper published in the United States for Democrats, and for ALL readers. It is the equal of many Dailies, and the superior of all other Semi-Weeklies or Weeklies HENRY WATTERSON, Editor. The Wednesday issue is devoted to

NEWS MATTERS, the Saturday isshe to THE HOME. Sample copies sent free on application. Address COURIER JOURNAL COMPANY, ouisville, Ky.

By special arrangement you get

The Citizen and Twice-a-Week Courier-Journal both for one year for

ONLY

The Citizen and Weekly Inter-ocean (America's best, editorially fearless and consistently Repub-written, original stories Answers to as he had been doing for several more than his morality. Edward did queries—Articles on Health, the nights, when some one rushed out of a Home, New Books, and on Work side hallway and struck at him with was nothing in him that could respond About the Farm and Garden.

the culy Western Newspaper receiving the entire telegraphic news service of the New York Sun and special cable of the New York World-daily reports from over 2,000 special correspondents throughout the country.

The two papers one year

ONLY SI

The Citizen and set of the Ideal Shakespeare.

In thirteen handy volumes, very large type, excellent paper, fine limp cloth, gilt top binding, size of volumes, 41x64 inches. It is the unabridged text of Clark and Wright's Cambridge Shakespeare, with notes and historical and critical prefaces of the famous and before either of them realized their "Temple Edition." The set is cased nearness to the narrow stairway, they in a beautiful silk cloth box. Regular reeled down the first step, lost their price $5.00.

Our price, with Citizen, the bottom.

ONLY $3.50. All charges prepaid.

NOTE: I will give THE IDEAL SHAKE-SPEARE as a premium for a club of sixteen (16) subscriptions to THE CITizen for a year, and eight (8) dollars. Send subscriptions as fast as you get them to JOHN DODWELL, Berea, Ky.

The above offers are for cash subscriptions only, and must be sent through

THE CITIZEN office.

Send money by registered letter or money order to

THE CITIZEN BEREA.

A Scared Mule.

A remarkable freak of the flood was unearthed at Maple Hill colliery, in Mahanoy City, Pa., recently. A big mule, the only one of thirteen to escape death, has turned gray with fright. The animal before the deluge was coal black, but is now a light gray. Identification was established by means of a flesh

Edward Blake: College Student.

0-0-0-0-0-0-0-0-0-0-0-0-0

By Charles M. Sheldon, of "In His Steps," "Malcom "The Crucifixion of Philip Strong." "Robert Hardy's Seven Days." " Copyright, 1899, in U. S. A., by Advance Publishing Co.,

The entire affair caused a great stir in Raynor. There was a good deal of criticism of President Royce's course. Good citizens who were very indignant always when mention was made of lawlessness in the city and wanted to know over their coffee and morning paper why something was not done by somebody to prevent such lawlessness said that President Royce had done a thing unbecoming a president of a college. So undignified and-and-wellso lacking-in the-the-best judgment. But the ordinance expressly provided for testimony to convict. The law of the state plainly said that it was the duty of every good citizen to inform the authorities of a breach of the law. The president was a citizen, like other men, and he had simply done his duty. What was there wrong about that? Well-it was a very undignified thing to act as a spy-to enter such an infamous place-to contaminate himself with touching the thing, so these good citizens said, and yet they were the very men who never did anything themselves except to find fault with the people for electing bad men to office or for not enforcing the law in some way. The good citizen of this country, of this type, will take his rightful place some time alongside the lawbreakers and be labeled with his true name, which is "Bad" citizen.

with a capital letter "B" for "Bad." But Edward's experience in the affair did not end with his part in the trial as one of the witnesses. There was another chapter, that might have proved even more exelting for him than it was if his training on the football field had not stood him in good

It was during the week of the trial. and while the case was still dragging along with delays on technicalities, and the outcome of it was not certain, that Edward was surprised one evening in one of the hallways of a down town office building by an attack made on him by some unknown person.

He had gone up to the top of the building to deliver a paper at one of the places that he knew was a low gambling den. Since the arrest of the place had kept very strict watch and some heavy article that partly missed Is a member of the Associated Press, him in the dark, smashing his hat off his head and for a second stunning him slightly.

> He instantly turned and grappled with a man when another figure came out on the opposite side of the hall and flung himself on him.

But Edward was used to having several men fling themselves on him in football games, and, although he was very much taken by surprise now, his dogged, stubborn, slow nature was equal to the unexpected event, and he forced one of his assailants back into the hallway from which he had come, and heard him strike the floor in a heap. Then he turned his attention to the other, and instantly felt that he had his hands full, for his antagonist was a grown man, taller and heavier than himself, and he had struck Edward a heavy blow that pained him exceedingly. The two tugged and panted together, the stranger swearing and Edward silent, as usual, each trying to throw the other down. They swayed through the hall in the dark. balance and fell, still clinging to each other, and rolling over and over to

Edward found himself even in the strange situation of that descent wondering who would be on top when the bottom was reached. Evidently his assailant was having the same idea. For when they struck the ball below and rolled over again he let go of Edward. and although Edward was on his feet with an agility that was remarkable considering his weight, the man rushed past up the stairs again and van-

Ished in the darkness above. "Discretion was the better part of valor" on this occasion, and so Edward did not wait for the man to come back, possibly re-enforced by his companion. but beat an orderly retreat down the other two flights of stairs and so out on the street minus his hat and plus several bruises. He happened to be near a clothing store and went in and bought a hat and continued his route. When he reached his room on College hill, he took account of damages and found that, in addition to the loss of his hat, he had sustained several serious rents in his clothing. As he sat up late that night repairing the rents he questioned whether he had better make complaint to the police. But he finally decided identify the men. He did not know whether they belonged to the gambling crowd who were trying to get vengeance for his part in the arrest or | lege. whether they were part of the rough part of the city and had attempted to hold him for a purpose of petty robbery. He said nothing about the matter either to the president or Freeda until several weeks afterward. It was also significant of his stubboraness that he continued his route the next night the same as usual. He was not molested again that winter. And the event did not make any particular impression on him-not so much as it did afterward, when he told it to his sister and listened to her comments on it.

After the excitement due to these things centering about the gambler's arrest, trial and conviction had died out Edward found his mind going back more and more to Willis. As the days

He instantly turned and grappled with a went on he did not feel satisfied. He met Willis in chapel and on the grounds and in the halls constantly. His face bore heavier marks of dissipation, and he was evidently running a fast pace with the fast set.

Mrs. Preston had also written again, urging Edward if possible to go back and room with her son. "I am sure." she said, "that Willis would welcome you, and you could keep him from many wrong things. I know he still has great respect for you. Your recent action in the matter of the gambler's arrest evoked his admiration. He wrote me a strong account of it and defended your motives, although, alas! I fear he himself was one of the frequenters of the place. Can you do anything? If so, will you not do it for the sake of Willis, if not for me? I cannot help feeling that he is going from bad to worse. But just what I there until he insisted on going out fear I cannot define. I seem to be walting to hear of some final disgrace that he will suffer. In God's name, do all you can, Mr. Blake, and I willpray for you as I ask you to pray for Edward read this letter with a feelgambler up town the proprietor of this ing of shame, as he had always felt the president. more or less on reading Mrs. Preston's Edward was not permitted to enter, as letters. She wrote, always assuming he sometimes had done. He threw the that Edward was a conscientious to a part of her appeal. Nevertheless, he was moved so much by it that he was exceedingly unhappy. He even decided to go and have a talk with him and see if their former relations could be resumed. But when he went up to the old room, Willis happened to be having a card party of fellows most of whom were distasteful to Edward. So when Willis opened the door and Edward saw at a glance who were in the room he said briefly: "I wanted to see you. But I won't come in to-Willis stepped out into the hall and shut the door. He was puffing a cigarette, and looked more than usually dissipated.

"Anything in particular?" he asked, not unkindly. Edward hesitated. "Yes, but I can't talk with that crowd around." "I'll send 'em away," said Willis carelessly.

"You needn't do that," said Edward Afterward he was sorry he had not taken Willis at his word, for Willis turned and went back into the room indifferently, and Edward slowly went down the stairs disappointed and more unhappy than ever.

It was perhaps a week after that that Edward was hailed by one of the men in his hall as he came down to breakfast. "Say! Heard the news? Preston and Williams and Hawley and half that gang were taken in last night and are likely to get fired for good. They stacked Wheaton's room, burned up all his Bibles and wound up by painting a lot of ballet dancers on the chapel tower. They were caught red handed and have confessed. Prexy won't stand the desecration of the chapel, and he'll give them their final papers, I guess."

Edward listened in silence. He felt glad of the news if it meant the dismissal of the fast set that were no credit to Hope. But he could not help wondering about Willis. He had known of his indulging in various pranks, such as tearing a student's room to pieces and piling the pieces up in the center of the room, which was called "stacking," but he had never known him to be guilty of such an immoral act as the one ascribed to him in connection with the chapel tower. Later in the day the morning rumor was confirmed, and more too. It was said that Willis had confessed himself to being the principal offender in the chapel desecration. It was also said not to say anything. He could not that the college authorities could not pardon it and that Willis, with half a dozen others in his set, would be not only suspended, but expelled from col-

On hearing the news, which came gang that had for years infested that direct from good sources, Edward determined to see President Royce. He was not altogether clear in his mind concerning what he wanted to see him for. But he seemed impelled to go to him in Willis' behalf. Perhaps Mrs. Preston's letter had something to do with it.

He went over to the office at the usual hour in the afternoon when the president was in for students and knocked. In answer to the summons to come in he entered and found Wheaton in earnest conversation with the president.

"It's all right if Blake hears your story. Wheaton, isn't it?" • sked the president. "Yes, sir," replied Wheaton, nodding at Edward. "Go on, then," continued the president gravely. It was very still in the little office as Wheaton began to speak.

CHAPTER XI.

"Of course I feel bad about the damage to my room," said Wheaton gravely, "and the destruction of my books, especially my Bibles and Sunday school helps, seems like a wanton and irreverent thing that is without excuse. But I wish to say for Preston that while he was present and helped to tear up the carpet and turn my stove bottom side up he did not touch any of my books, and I can swear to his remonstrating with one of the other men

"But what I called to see you for especially, sir, was to tell you that Prestor did not desecrate the chapel tower, as he claims he did."

"How do you know that?" asked the president, a good deal surprised. Well, sir, I came by the chapel late last night because I had been down to the night selfool across the river. The painting of the picture had not been done then, and it was nearly midnight. I went right up to my room and found my door off its hinges and Preston and half a dozen others inside tearing the room to pieces. When they were through they all rushed out of my room and the hall, except Preston, who staid until after 3 o'clock. And it was between midnight and 3 o'clock that the pictures were drawn on the tower, according to the testimony of Logan, who helped to apprehend a part of the

"How is that? You say Preston staid with you until 3 o'clock? How did that happen?"

"Well, sir," answered Wheaton, with some reluctance, "he had been drinking quite hard before he came up to the room and he was taken ill just as the men finished their work, and I made him go into my bedroom, which they had not touched, and lie down again.'

The president and Edward learned afterward that Wheaton had staid up and tended Willis as carefully as if he had been his dearest friend.

"But Preston was caught with the rest of the men near the chapel," said

Yes, sir; but you see he left my room after the crowd had done the work on the chapel, and walked around | what he really owed to Willis and his News from all of the world-Well paper down at the bottom of the door. Christian and she always appealed to the hall right into the midst of them only a few minutes before they were caught. So be couldn't have been guilty of the offense."

The president was silent and thoughtful.

"Why should be confess, then, that sought to see Willis that evening. He he is the guilty party? He insists upon it that he planned and executed most of the work.

Wheaton was silent, because he evidently had no good reason to give for Willis' conduct, and Edward spoke up.

"I think I can make a guess at that," he said, as the president turned toward him. "Preston has been borrowing heavily of his society friends, notably from Rankin. I have good reason to suppose that he is a good deal involved with them, in one way and another. He considers that this event will mean his discharge from the college unveav and he has confessed to being guilty of this act of desecrating the chapel in order to shield the other men, who really did it, and to whom he is under such heavy obligations, in order to retain their favor. And the other men are mean enough to keep still and let Willis lie about it, just to save themselves, seeing he is in so deep with them on the money ques-

"It's a shrewd explanation," replied the president, "and you may be right." In fact, as it afterward came out, Edward had hit upon the exact truth in the matter, as Willis himself confess-"But now the question still faces the faculty as to the punishment to be meted out. If Preston it not guilty of the particular offense of which he is charged he is more or less of a ringleader among the worst set in Hope, and we cannot let such an affair as that of last night go by unnoticed or unpunished."

Wheaton looked at Edward and was evidently disturbed in his mind. But after a silence, which neither the president nor Edward attempted to break, he said: "Dr. Royce, I came in here on purpose to ask you to allow Mr. Preston to remain in college if possible. I have been praying for him all winter that he might be saved. A number of other men in the association are doing the same thing. We feel deeply interested in him. He will be a man of great power if the Lord once wins him. It is a critical time with Preston, right now, and it may prove the turning point in his whole life."

The president looked at Wheaton kindly. "Then you bear him no grudge for his share in last night's destruction of your room."

"No, sir; how can I? Are we not

The president was silent again. Then Edward repeated Wheaton's words he turned to Edward.

"Is that what you came to see me

"Yes, sir," replied Edward in a low hardly knew at first what I came over so bad as all that." Here Willis conhave another chance. I don't feel quite statement that he was the guilty pareasy about my part. I haven't kept ty. "Honest, now, I don't want to be

It cost Edward Blake more than the just about kill mother. I don't care president could understand to say all for myself, but I hate to deal her the that. There was really a struggle last and hardest blow of all." And, to going on in him all the time over his Edward's surprise. Willis put his head own duty to Willis. If he pleaded with down between his knees and gave a the president not to discharge him from college, there was Miss Seton, whoand then-bis own relations to Willis -what could be do more than be bad

The president sat eying the two young men thoughtfully. "I had fully made up my mind before you came in to advise the faculty that Preston be dismissed once and for What Mr. Wheaton has said. Blake, changes my views somewhat. What you have said changes them more. Of course, you understand I am powerless to remit all punishment; that would not be fair. Mr. Preston deserves suspension, at least, for his part in the night's work. But I can promise this-that his case shall be carefully considered, and, if possible without injustice to others, he shall be allowed to continue his course."

Wheaton thanked the president and rose to go. Edward, knowing how busy the president always was, rose also. "Wait a minute, Blake, please. want a word with you," said the president. And Edward sat down again as-

Wheaton went out. "I want to ask another thing about your relations to Preston. You have not been rooming together now for several weeks. Do you think you could help him by going back and resuming your old relations?" "Then I would say by all means go back to him." "That is, supposing he wants me to quickly. "I do not know how he feels toward you. That is for you to find out. But if the faculty of the college have it in their power to use good influence. Besides, you said you felt as if you had not quite kept your promise to his mother.

"Yes, sir, I said it, and I can't help feeling that I might do more.

"Whatever that is, Blake, I rely on you to do," said the president gravely as he turned to his papers on his desk. "Don't forget that the future destiny of a soul may rest with you to deter- by S. E. WELCH, JR. And Edward, with this last sentence impressed almost painfully on his mind, went out of the office.

He walked slowly over to his room, went in and sat down by his table. He' was really having a fight over his personal inclinations and his sense of mother at this particular time. He really did not care to room with his old chum again. He had come to like the quiet of rooming alone. He had grave doubts concerning his influence over Willis in the matter of drinking. although he was obliged reluctantly to confess that he had probably not exerted all his influence to its full limit. But all through his conflict of feeling he could not shut out the generous side of Willis' nature, and certain passages in Mrs. Preston's letters at different times appealed to him. At last he got up and went out and rossed over to Rankin hall. The living room was in great con fusion, and there was an open trunk standing near Willis' bedroom door. Edward did not see any one and at first thought that Willis was not in. But as he took a step into the room a number of articles, including a hairbrush, a pair of tennis shoes and a sweater, were thrown out of the bedroom toward the trunk. The sweater and the hairbrush dropped inside, but the shoes missed and fell on the other side of the trunk near a number of other things that had evidently been flung near the middle of the room in the same way. Suddenly Willis appeared at his bedroom door with an armful of things. As he caught sight of Edward he pulled up rather hastily, and then threw the whole armful in a heap into the trunk.

What are you doing?" asked Edward, rather unnecessarily.

Willis laughed boisterously. "Don't you see? I'm getting ready to abandon Hope,' to quote from Dante. I'm going to anticipate being fired by going off before the trigger is pulled, as the gun said to the little boy who thought it wasn't londed. Goodby scholars, goodby school, goodby Prexy no, I don't think the rest of it is right to say. He's always treated me square enough. I'm the one that's been a

Edward walked over to the table and sat down on one corner of it.

"I came in to see you about matters generally. I don't think you need to leave college." "Why, is Wheaton circulating a petition to have me stay, so he can have the pleasure of my company?" "Not quite that, but he has begged the president not to dismiss you from the college." "How's that?" asked Willis in evident astonishment.

Edward told him about the scene in the president's study and what Wheaton had said. Willis listened with increasing emotion.

"Well, Wheaton is square. He's worth a bundred thousand men like told to love our enemies? Besides, I Rankin, with his money and his sneakdo not regard Preston as by any means ing, stingy ways. And after we had the worst of the set in Hope. I have pulled his room to pieces too; seems always had a personal drawing toward like a lot of sympathy wasted on the him, and there has not been a night for wrong party, though, don't you think? two years that I have not prayed for Did you say he was praying for my soul?

as nearly as he could recall them.

"It looks as if his prayers hadn't been heard very much, as far as I'm concerned, doesn't it? But I didn't do "That is, I-to tell the truth, I the work on the tower. I'm not quite But I want Willis to stay and fessed to Edward the truth about his my promise to his mother as I ought." kicked out of college just now. It will

'I'm getting ready to 'abandon Hope, sob that was the result of being unnerved generally over the events of the

[TO BE CONTINUED.]

A VALUABLE MEDICINE. For Coughs and Colds in Children.

'I have not the slightest hesitancy "I might," Edward answered slowly. in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to all who are suffering from coughs or colds," says Chas. M Cramer, Esq., a well known watch maker, of Colombo, Ceylon. "It has been some two years since the City Dispensary first called my attention are to help Preston we must ourselves to this valuable medicine and I have be helped by any of the students who repeatedly used it and it has always been beneficial. It has cured me quickly of all chest colds. It is especially effective for children and seldom takes more than one bottle to cure them of hoarseness. I have persuaded many to try this valuable medicine, and they are all as well pleased as myself over the results." For sale

Necessary Expenses for

Twelve Weeks' School.

Persons who board themselves can spend as much or little as they choose on living expenses. It pays to have a little extra money, for lectures, books, and other things. But the necessary expenses are only as follows: Incidental Fee Hospital Fee Books, etc., about General Deposit Room (stove, table, etc.) Fuel-and Oil Rent of Laundry First Month's Board

Total Expense, 12 Weeks . 27175 27 75 For those below A Grammar deduct the $2 for books, and $1 from incidental fee, making the total only $24.75.

When four girls room together each saves $1 on room, and $2 or more on fuel, making the total only $21.75, if classed below A Grammar. Fuel is 50 cents more in Winter and 50 cents less in Spring term. Two rooms for housekeeping, with stoves, etc., can usually be rented for from $4 to $6 a term.

The price of a big calf, a little tan-bark, or a few home-spun bed-covers, will give a term of school which will change one's whole life for the better!

Shudders At His Past.

"I recall now with horror," says Mail Carrier Burnett Mann, of Levanna, O., "my three years of suffering from Kidney trouble. I was hardly ever free from dull aches or acute pains in my back. To stoop or lift mail sacks made me groan, I felt tired worn out, about ready to give up, when I began to use Electric Bitters, but six bottles completely cured me and made me feel !ike a new man." They're unrivaled to regulate Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and Bowels, perfect satisfaction guaranteed by all drugstores.

YOUR POSTMASTER

Is the authorized agent for THE CITIZEN. Give him FIFTY CENTS and he will send it to us and we will send you The Neatest, Cleanest, Newsy Newspaper you ever read, fifty-two times, one each week for a year.

POSTAGE STAMPS TAKEN

-A Mortgage-On An Air Castle

and a dead man's good intentions are equally worthless to a widow and her orphan children. Take out a policy NOW-while you can-with

The Mutual Life Insurance

Company of Kentucky

and provide something SUB-STANTIAL for your widow and orphans. The New Perfection Policy-incontestable from date of issue-is the best life insurance proposition in the field.

DAN BRECK, District Manager. Richmond, Ky.,

W. H. PORTER, District Agent Berea Banking Company, Berea, Ky.

BUY THE

Do not be deceived by those who advertise a $60.00 Sewing Machine for $20.00. This kind of a machine can be bought from us or any of our dealers from $15.00 to $18.00.

WE MAKE A VARIETY. THE NEW HOME IS THE BEST.

The Feed determines the strength or weakness of Sewing Machines. The Double Feed combined with other strong points makes the New Home the best Sewing Machine to buy. Write for CIRCULARS showing the dif-ferent styles of Sewing Machines we manufacture and prices before purchasing

THE NEW HOME SEWING MACHINE CO. 8 Union Sq. N. Y., Chicago, Ill., Atlanta, Ge., St. Louis, Mo., Dallas, Tex., San Francisco, Os

FOR SALE BY SISCO & CO., Nicholasville, Ky.

THE MARKETS.

AS REPORTED RY
A. G. NORMAN & CO.,
CINCINNATI, Apr., 15,
CATTLE-Common$2.50 @ $4.00
" Butchers4.40 @ 5.85
" Shippers5.75 @ 6.35
Calves-Choice5.00 @ 5.50
" Large Common.3.00 @ 5.00
Hogs-Common6.10 @ 7.10
" Fair, good light. 6.35 @ 6.75
" Packing7.20 @ 7.35
SHEEP-Good to choice 5.00 @ 5.40
" Common to fair . 3.00 @ 4.75
Lambs-Good to choice . 6.00 @ 7.00
" Common to fair.4.25 @ 6.50

" Common to fair . 3.00 @	4.75
Lambs—Good to choice 6.00 @	7.00
" Common to fair.4.25 @	6.50
Wнеат—No. 2 Red 81½ @	82
Corn-No. 2 mixed New 624 @	63
OATS-No. 2 " 46 @	47
KYE-No 2 63 @	64
FLOURWinter patent3.65 @	4.00
" fancy3.40 @	3.60
" Family	3.25
MILL FEED	18.50
HAY-No. 1 Timothy 12.50 @	13.00
" No. 2 "11.00 @ " No. 1 Clover 9.50 @	11.25
" No. 1 Clover 9.50 @	9.75
" No. 2 " 8.00 @	9.50
" No. 2 " 8.00 @
I OULTRY-
Fryers per lb	12
Heavy hens " Roosters "	101
Roosters " Turkey hens " Tom's Turkeys	5
Turkey hens"	12
Tom's Turkeys	9
Ducks "	11
Eggs—Fresh near by	14
" Goose	35
HIDES-Wet salted 6@	7
" No 1 dry salt 9 @	10
" Bull 5 @	6
" Sheep skins 40 @	50
Tallow-Prime city 61 @	63
" Country 5\\ a\ @	6
Wood-Unwashed,
modium combine 17 @	10
medium combing 17 @	18 23
Washed long " 22 @ Tub washed 22 @
	23
FEATHERS-

It Saved His Leg.

12 @

Geese, new nearly white

Duck, colored to white.

Chicken, white no quills

Turkey, body dry.....

gray to average.

P. A. Danforth, of LaGrange, Ga., suffered for six months with a fright-25c. Sold by all drugstores.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Welch takes in about 200 dozens of eggs a day.

Miss Robinson and Mrs. Hoag left Monday for a short trip.

Tom Mason, of Kirksville, was in town Tuesday. Bicknell & Early are selling lots of farm machinery. The business of the Berea Banking Company is growing.

Walker Baker, and wife, of Wallaceton, were in town Saturday.

Mrs. Stegall, wife of James Stegall, is still quite ill.

The friends of Second Church are rallying to the parsonage enterprise. There was a good crowd at the Concert at the Tabernacle Tuesday elsewhere on this page.

Welch is selling lots of Oliver Chilled Plows this year. See his adv.

lots of "singers" this year.

& ARNOLD, Richmond, Ky.

ed ready for breaking.

prices.

for some months.

conducted by James Dalton.

Rev. C. L. Sturgill preached at the from his girl. district schoolhouse, white, on Sunday evening. There was a good congregation.

Mrs. E. B. Wallace and Miss Emma Soper, paid a visit to the Students' Job Print and THE CITIZEN office Tuesday evening.

It is not a good idea to blow your own horn, but THE CITIZEN is the best printed newspaper in this end of Kentucky.

Search THE CITIZEN for errors in spelling and publication and notify the Editor. It will be taken as a Bicknell & Early have the agency in Madison county for the Page Woven wire fence, the best general purpose fence on the market.

Geo. Baker, Peter Keith and Will Hollingsworth, of Burning Springs, passed through town Monday morning enroute to Crab Orchard.

On Saturday, April 26, W. F. Kidd, administrator of the late James Hart, will hold a public auction, at the residence of Mrs. Hart on Center St.

Berea, but now of Richmond, Ind., came in before leaving Wednesday and ordered THE CITIZEN to visit him regularly.

The stone and brick of the foundation work of the Chapel, lately burn- G. W. Gates, of Silver Creek .- Mrs. ed, are being hauled to the site of the College brickyard for use in installing the plant.

Baseball. -The Danville Deafmutes vs. Berea College, next Saturday at 2. p. m. Admission, 15 cents. This will be the first game on the new field and will be a good game.

Richmond Sunday to preach at the and Thursday.—Born to Mr. and Mrs. Northern Presbyterian church in the Bent Davidson, a girl.-Mr. Willie place of Rev. Mr. Eisenhart, who will H. Stephens, of Scaffold Cane, visited preach here for Berea church.

Robinson's window, in the Cornelius' Sunday evening.-Your corresponddisplay of jewelry, watches, clocks, Lee Abney last Saturday and Sunday bric-a-brac, etc.

mond and Madison county for Famous and wife Sunday. - Miss Nora Owens, Queen Quality Shoes for Women. of Brush Creek, visited home folks Prices, $3.00; Oxfords, $2.50. A large Saturday and Sunday.-Born to Mr. assortment of W. L. Douglas Shoes and Mrs. Clint Holt, a fine boy, Losfor Men at $2 50, $3.00 and $3.50. Al- | co. ways on hand. RICE & ARNOLD, RICH-MOND.

Edwin S. Fee, well known in Berea, now residing in Decatur county, Ind., writes to his sister, Mrs. Laura Fee Saturday and Sunday.—M. Etta Gay Embree, that he has lately sold a car was here Saturday on business.load of cattle, realizing for them the Little Mina Jones is quite ill againhighest price paid in his county for A large congregation was addressed twenty years, $6.35 per hundred at Sunday by Bros. Powell, Clemmons, the farm. The case of Town of Berea vs. baptized .- Mrs. Daugherty is sick .ful running sore on his leg; but writes Bogie and Baker, "Maintaining a People here are through with their that Bucklen's Arnica Salve wholly nuisance in the Town of Berea," was oats sowing and are breaking up their cured it in five days. For Ulcers, tried in Judge Gay's court, Tuesday corn ground.—Misses Laura and Nan-Wounds, Piles, it's the best salve in 2. p. m., resulting in a "hung jury," and nie Hatfield went to Berea last Thursthe world. Cure guaranteed. Only will be called up again Tuesday at day.-Mr. and Mrs. Knox, of New 2:30. p. m.

CORRESPONDENCE.

OWSLEY COUNTY. MAJOR

was at the family graveyard, and was Kingston this week to remain. conducted by Revs. Ramey and Pendergrass.-Harvey Owens has purchased the old homestead of Jas. Stacey. -Miss Bettie Pendergrass has been on a visit to her aunt, Mrs. Mollie Flanery, of Buck Creek .- The little of the Bethel Baptist Church, preachson of W. T. Pendergrass is seriously ed his introductory sermon Sunday ill .- Mr. Bert Woodward is visiting his sister, Mrs. Long.-Arthur Garrett ulate themselves on securing such an Kiev and made a bargain with the has returned from school at London. able pastor. - Charlie Brazier, of Madhouse lately vacated by Mr. Tolliver. sumption.-Mrs. Bell Gray, of Hel- when it turns up. The bishop has

VINCENT.

Spring is here, and farmers are behind with their work.-Miss Lora Mrs. Dodwell has three broods of Treadway, of Delvinta, has been visityoung canaries. She hopes to raise ing friends and relatives at this place. -Mr. and Mrs. Willie Hamilton, of The swellest line of Hats, Neckwear, this place, visited relatives on Doe Underwear, Collars and Cuffs, at Rice Creek Saturday and Sunday.-Judge S. Isaacs, who has been ill with rheu-The rock to metal Chesnut Street matism, is improving.-W. P. Treadfrom Main Street, west, is being haul- way paid his girl a pleasant call Sunday.-Isaacs & Venable have gone to You can buy drugs and medicines Louisville to lay in a new supply of cheaper, and every bit as good, at spring goods.-Miss Martha Mainous Welch's than you can in Richmond. and Misses Priscilla and Matilda Me-T. A. Robinson talks of making up Intire visited relatives on Buck Creek some special packages of jewelry for Saturday and Sunday.-Mr. James sale at Commencement at popular Isaacs, the drummer of this place has been very busy for the past week. Rev. C. Rexford Raymond, wife -Mr. and Mrs. Billy Mainous are all and baby left Monday for New York smiles; it is a girl.-Mr. Blackwell State. Prof. Raymond will be absent Scott is very proud of his namesake, Blackwell Turner.-Bro. Ragan will The firm of Dalton & Kinnard is begin a revival service at Clifty dissolved, and the business will be church Sunday .- B. B. Isaacs is still in good heart; he had another letter ed the First Baptist Church, colored, week. at Berea Sunday, and report a good service.-Mr. and Mrs. Sam White Adminstrator of the estate of J. M. on his way to Richmond .- Mrs. Rit- farm utensils. ter, of White Station, has moved to London, Laurel county .- Mrs. H. L. still unable to attend his courts be-Bennett, who has been ill for some cause of illness. The bar of the time, is recovering health .- Miss S. Madison Circuit Court in session Blythe has gone to Winchester for passed resolutions of regret at the the summer.

MADISON COUNTY. FARRISTOWN.

PEYTONTOWN.

A number of our people attended the funeral of Robert White at Farristown last week. - Rev. T. Broaddus was unable to fill his appointment health." here last Sunday, being called to attend the funeral of Mrs. Bush Deatherage, of Richmond. Revs. G. B. and into the grave over the grocer's Will Peters, a former student at I. Miller conducted our services. A collection was taken, amounting to $52.27, for the erection of a Baptist church in Jackson, Breathitt county. -Mrs. Mary Shearer is home again after a three months' stay with Mrs. Mary Shearer and Mrs. Lucy Turner visited Richmond on business last week.

ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

DISPUTANTA.

Miss Fannie Culton and little mother. brother Hugh, of Richmond, visited Rev. Wm. Lodwick will go to Miss Nannie Anglin last Wednesday your correspondent last Sunday even Have you seen the nail keg full of ing .- Rev. Green Fish, of Renfro pennies, nickels and quarters in T. Creek, preached at the Old Tanyard Drugstore? Robinson has a good ent visited her cousin, Miss Parrie Taylor Abney and Squire J. M. We have the sole agency for Rich- Reynolds visited Rev. J. W. Lambert

JACKSON COUNTY. KERBY KNOB.

S. B. Combs was in this vicinity and Morbely; John R. Kirby was York, passed through this place Wednesday on their way to Berea, from McKee, where they have been transacting some business. - John McIntosh and wife have a new baby girl.-Sunday-school convention in district five, at this place, the fourth Saturday in this month. Everybody invited .-Martin Rowling, of White Oak, Miss Lottie Parks visited her cousins died Thursday, April 3, leaving a Misses Sarah and Bessie Powell. Miss wife and four children. The burial Parks will go to her new home at

MASON COUNTY. MAYSVILLE.

Rev. R. H. Porter, the new pastor evening. The members may congrat--Steve Tyre moved Saturday to the dox St., died Sunday evening of con- institution to give them two-thirds ena, spent Saturday and Sunday in not yet given his sanction to the this city.-Mr. Frank Brady was a enterprise, but is being labored with welcome visitor at the Bethel Sunday- to that end. school Sunday morning .- All the children, who belong to the society of "Little Elks" are expected to bring their envelopes to Sunday-school Sunday morning.-W. H. Steward, years ago he made this prediction editor of the American Baptist, visit- concerning the city of St. Louis: ed the city school Friday morning .-- "One of these days this will be the Mrs. Fannie McPheters, of Dayton, passing point of two enormous chan-O., is visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. nels of trade. The one will be an Rosa McPheters of East Second St .- iron way over the great west, the Allie Morton came home from Ash- other a waterway down the Missisland recently.-The New Era Institute held at the Plymouth Baptist church during the past week was a conflict between the two will have success in every respect. Quite a all the bitterness of a fratricidal number of interesting addresses were war."-Springfield Republican. made by the ministers. - Mrs. Sarah Wheeler, of North Fork, attended the New Era Institute the past week.

OUR COUNTY NEWS.

Ballard Combs, who killed John Owens at the Blue Lick schoolhouse last fall, was sentenced last Friday to 12 years imprisonment.

The surveyors of the Blue Grass Traction Company commenced to Clara and Robert White are very survey the route to Richmond ill from pneumonia at this writing .- last Monday and expect to complete Quite a number of our people attend- the first survey to Richmond this

On Saturday, April 26, W. F. Kidd have moved out of our town, and we Hart, deceased, will sell at the late are sorry to lose them .- John L. home of J. M. Hart, in Berea, a lot of Francis passed through here Sunday property consisting of live stock and > Judge T. J. Scott, of Richmond, is sickness of Judge Scott.

An Experience.

"You know," said the prudent person, "that no one ought to eat meat three times a day. It destroys

"Yes, I know it does. I tried it awhile and nearly worried myself bills."-Washington Star.

A News Average.

Hustling Editor-How many murlers did that man commit? Assistant-One of the reporters says three, another says five and another says nine. Hustling Editor-Three, five, nine, eh? Oh, well, we'll have to strike an average. Make it 359.

Keeping Him Busy.

"You ought to be more economical," said young Mrs. Torkins'

"Perhaps I ought," was the answer, "only, you know, I'm afraid it might be a temptation to idleness for Charley."-Washington Star.

Sympathetic Woman.

Mr. Gowitt-Dr. Bolus says if I don't ease up a bit in my work I'll be dead in a year.

Mrs. Gowitt-But you will have nothing to reproach yourself with, since you've got your life insured .-Philadelphia Press.

How He Finally Proposed.

"Why don't you speak for yourself?" she asked of the diffident suitor.

"Because I-I want to speak for you," he answered.—Chicago Post.

Horseless Flier. "Young man, you are going the pace that kills.' "Seems so, parson. My automobile ran down six chickens and a dog yesterday."-Chicago News.

Her Pet Dog. I saw her take him in her arms

And hold him to her heart; She pledged her love to him and said They nevermore would part.

And then, as if 'twere not enough To pledge her love like this, She bent and on his bearded cheek Bestowed a matchless kiss

Then to myself I softly said:

"Here's where I give you up! The maid whose lips my own would Must never kiss a pup!"

The Standard of Worth.

Measure your worth by the standard of duty well done, not by the opinion of others.-Rev. George H. Hepworth, Congregationalist, New York.

Buried Treasure.

A Russian officer, hunting through some old family papers, came on what seemed to him evidence that certain Russian families, now extinet, and some monks of the monastery of Potchajowska, not far from Kiev, had during the Napoleonic wars buried in that institution a sum of $4,000,000 to keep it out of "Bony's" clutches. Included among the papers was a diagram showing exactly where the treasure was deposited. The officer is quite sure it is there yet and has gone to present generation of monks in the Eads' Prophecy Being Fulfilled.

It is related of James B. Eads, the engineer of the St. Louis bridge and other great works, that some sippi, across the isthmus and up the Pacific. The one will represent speed, the other economy, and the

FROM

BLACK ROCK Our Next Serial

As we sauntered from the van our bed, we paused to take in the beauty of the night. The moon rode high over the peaks of the mountains, flooding the narrow valley with mellow light. Under her magic the rugged peaks softened thefr harsh lines and seemed to lean lovingly toward us. The dark pine masses stood sileut, as in breathless adoration. The daszling snow lay like a garment over all the open spaces in soft. waving felds and crowned every stump with a quaintly shaped nighteap. Above the camps the smoke curled up from the campfires, standing like pillars of cloud that kept watch while men slept, and high over all the deep blue night sky, with its star jewels sprang like the roof of a great eathedral from range to range. covering us in its kindly shel-ter. How homelike and safe seemed the valley, with its mountain sides, its sentinel trees and arching roof of jewcled sky! Even the night seemstars, and the lone cry of the wolf from the deep forest seem-

THIS STORY IS A GEM

WATCH FOR THE OPENING CHAPTERS

Louisville, Henderson and St. Louis Railway

Homeseekers' Excursions

LOW RATES

WEST

Tickets on Sale First and Third Tuesdays in MARCH, APRIL and MAY, 1902

Also Low "Colonist", One Way Rates to the Northwest and California Points ***

For Further Information Address

GEO. L. GARRETT Trav. Pass. Agent J. IR.WIN Gen'l Pass. Agent

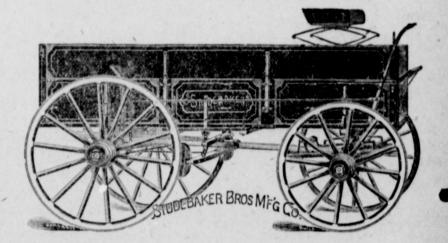

LOUISVILLE, KY.

Watch this space next week!

CALCACTOR NORMANTANA DES

OUR

And with such articles we make our prices. Never buy a wagon that you never heard recommended by anyone except the man that wants to sell it.

BUY STUDEBAKER WAGONS AND OLIVER PLOWS. SOLD AT

WELCH'S